JIMMY

#3 Kid #1 Son. You won't believe this. Jimmy + Ronnie Fitzgerald were coming home from school, when they came upon these Ducks in the alley somewhere. I don't know if we were supposed to raise them or cook them. I told them they were probably some Family's Pets. Anyway we talked themⁱⁿ to taking them back where they Ducknapped them from. He was probably about Twelve. He finally completed the Twelfth Grade. He had to go to Summer School for to the Seventh Grade + Marge said you're going to Graduate if you're Thirty years old. When he did finish he wanted to go to Princeton or Yale. But I talked him into becoming a Truck Mechanic like me. I had a reason for him becoming a Mechanic. I knew ~~it~~^{he} would probably be driving cars from 'Tony's Bone Yard' for years. I knew I would be sitting back watching Soap Operas when I retired. He could be working on his Bombs out in the cold. He wanted to become a Brain Doctor or ~~Astron~~ Astronaut. I think he was probably in the Fourth Grade + the Teacher gave him Detention for something. A few Days latter his Teacher called Marge + ask her if she could get some one to watch his Baby Sister so he could stay for from his Detention because he owed her Three Days. Marge told her

he doesn't even have a baby Sister.
 The Teacher got her way. It wasn't long after that when the Music Teacher called & said is there any way Jimmy could get a Suit to wear on Wednesday so he could sing in the Choir. She told her he did have a Suit, but I think he got out of it somehow or other. The Teachers always made him sit up front so he would stay attention minded. Moving on to work at Tower Ford, Jimmy & the Bosses Son were playing with Fire Crackers. They both had long Pony Tails then & there was a partial empty Undercoating barrel sitting there.
 Jimmy threw a Hammer Head Fire Cracker in & waited but nothing happened.
 Finally after about thirty seconds he thought he would relight it. You guessed it! When he looked in the Barrel it went off. Don't forget about the 'Pony Tail'. His face & Hair & were full of Undercoating. It looks like a Tar Substance. Only two people weren't laughing. Me & Him. The Boss Bill Ey. said it takes about twenty minutes to turn off Jimmy's Radios at quitting time. He always had about four going at the same time. If he gets in your car He'll take your Dash & Glove Compartment apart & turn on your Radio. He never gets sick or a Cold & stitches are holding him together. Look at his Hands sometime they look worse than mine. Let him to tell you about the time we set this Bum on Fire at Tower Ford. The poor Guy was just a spectator & we tried to Burn him & up. He was a pretty good Hunter though. It only took him about six Shugs to bring a little Deer down. But nobody could ever beat him at Rabbit Hunting. It was about Nineteen Seventy & the Temperature was about Fifteen Degrees. It was ~~so~~ snowing & we had to break the Ice to get our Boats out. We had two Boats & Four in each Boat. Jimmy was Fishing a Flyrod. I think it was Ed - Dave Me & Jimmy in the same Boat. Jimmy caught Five Pike. And his Six Pound Pike tied the record for that year. Were talking cold Fishing. We don't do that any more. When he was about Seventeen or Eighteen he was Dating about three Lindas at the same time. I would answer the Phone & some one would say 'Can I speak to Jimmy?' And I would say, look I'm going to have to call you Linda #1 the next time I would say did you just call & she would say 'No' This is Linda & I would say when you call again tell me your #two & so on. It didn't go over to good with our Star Boarder Jimmy. Years ago I just found out something else happened Our Star Boarder was down the Celler

He was probably about Fourteen. He told me put a 22 Bullet in the Vice + hit it with a Hammer, it went off + nearly scared him to Death. It made a lot of noise, thats all. My room is as neat as a pin, a place for everything + everything in its place. His looks like a junkyard like Kates. Hes a Workaholic - never misses or never late I'll say that about him. He did do a couple things ~~reco~~ right. & He has two Beautiful Daughters. Kelly looks like her Mother but Synsay looks + is tall like Jimmy. He puts Minnie Whets in a bowl one by one, with the Sugar side all pointing up. 'Weird' I guess it takes all kinds
